

The Advisory Committee on Transparency presents

The Hidden Budget: Tax Expenditures

Monday, June 13, 2011

Panelists:

- ◆ William Beach, Director, Center for Data Analysis, the Heritage Foundation
- ◆ Jesse Feinberg, Legislative Assistant, The Honorable Mike Quigley (D-IL.)
- ◆ Thomas Hungerford, Specialist in Public Finance, Congressional Research Service
- ◆ Lori Metcalf, Project Manager, SubsidyScope, The Pew Charitable Trusts
- ◆ Daniel Schuman, Moderator, Policy Counsel, the Sunlight Foundation
- ◆ Eric Toder, Institute Fellow, the Urban Institute

Resources:

- ◆ More information on tax expenditures -- including reports by the panelists, in-depth research, and a partial list of efforts to track tax expenditures -- is available at <http://transparencycaucus.org/resources/tax-expenditures/>
- ◆ For a short primer on tax expenditures, see Why You Should Care About Tax Expenditure Transparency, available at <http://bit.ly/TaxPrimer>
- ◆ For a more in-depth overview of tax expenditures, see Tax Expenditures and Government Size and Efficacy, available at <http://bit.ly/TaxPrimer2>

Want to receive notices of future Advisory Committee on Transparency events or get involved? Email ACT@SunlightFoundation.com. Archives and more information about the Advisory Committee is available at <http://transparencycaucus.org/>

The Advisory Committee on Transparency educates policymakers on transparency-related issues, problems, and solutions and shares ideas with members of the Congressional Transparency Caucus. It hosts events to discuss important and wide-ranging transparency policy issues with experts from a variety of backgrounds and develops educational publications and provides timely information to the public and members of Congress. Learn more at <http://transparencycaucus.org>.